

VISUAL LITERACY MINOR

Program Requirements

| Code                           | Title                                | Hours        |
|--------------------------------|--------------------------------------|--------------|
| Lower Division          |                                      |              |
| INMD 101                       | Media Literacy                       | 3            |
| Select two of the following:   |                                      | 6            |
| VART 112                       | Digital Art Foundations <sup>1</sup> |              |
| VART 170                       | Photographic Art <sup>1</sup>        |              |
| JOUR 270                       | Photojournalism                      |              |
| VART 272                       | Introduction to Filmmaking           |              |
| JOUR 280                       | Design and Editing                   |              |
| Upper Division          |                                      |              |
| Select three of the following: |                                      | 9-11         |
| DGMP 320                       | Image Communication                  |              |
| VART 371                       | Art Fusion                           |              |
| JOUR 374                       | Documentary History & Analysis       |              |
| VART 408                       | History of Photography               |              |
| JOUR 470                       | Documentary Filmmaking               |              |
| VART 472                       | Creative Filmmaking                  |              |
| Total Hours             |                                      | 18-20 |

<sup>1</sup> Students majoring or minoring in Journalism must take VART 170 Photographic Art or VART 112 Digital Art Foundations.

See the Undergraduate Catalog department sections for individual course descriptions.

Note: Students using JOUR 470 Documentary Filmmaking and/or DGMP 320 Image Communication to satisfy the Visual Literacy minor requirements, may not also use the courses for an upper-division BRCO, JOUR or PRLS elective course required for Digital Media Production, Journalism, or Public Relations majors and minors.