

LAW AND PUBLIC POLICY

Department Website: Law and Public Policy (<https://www.gonzaga.edu/catalogs/current/undergraduate/school-of-business/law-and-public-policy/>)

Government regulation and legislation have a major impact on business, creating a need for public policy makers to understand the workings of business and for people in the private sector to understand the public sector. This is especially relevant for people pursuing careers in corporate public affairs and professional study in law, public administration, and public policy analysis.
